CONSERVATIVE LEADER

ADDRESSED A LARGE MEETING

Hon. C. W. Cross Given Splendid Reception when Permitted to Reply to the Arguments of Mr. Bennett

A considerable audience greeted R. B. Bennett of Calgary, leader of the Conservative party in Alberta at the meeting in the Thistle rink last night.

Hon. C. W. Cross was late in arriving. Dr. Wilson, president of the Provincial Conservative Association, Messrs. Bennett and Griesbach had already taken their seats on the platform when he arrived and on making his way to the platform was given a splendid reception.

Dr. Wilson, chairman, announced that he intended that all parties should obtain a square deal. Owing to the absence of Premier Rutherford, Mr. Griesbach would not speak, thus leaving Mr. Bennett one hour. Hon. C. W. Cross an hour and Mr. Bennett a reply.

Mr. Bennett, tall, clean shaven, suave and polished, at once justified his reputation as a witty politician by commenting on the wonderful progress of Edmonton since he had spoken here five years ago, from a struggling wooden village to fame unknown, to a wonderful city of enterprise and prosperity. Since then he had taken stock of himself and had gained some wisdom from age and experience. The province of Alberta had been born, and being six times as large as the state of Pennsylvania, six times as large as New York, twice as large as Great Britain and Ireland, its possible greatness could not be foreseen, but its timber lands, coal deposits and vast resources must be administered on broad principles that will bear the scrutiny of the light of day.

The founders of this great Dominion, met in Quebec in 1864 and framed the British North America Act, which was ratified by the Mother of Parliaments, the British House of Commons. It was to be a Federal union, not a legislative union, to which all matters of common weal were to be referred, while the legislatures of the different provinces were given co-equal and co-extensive powers over education, lands, timber and minerals. British Columbia and Prince Edward Island added after confederation were granted these privileges, while Manitoba had two words added on education and had to go to the Privy Council to have them ratified. In 1870 the North-West Territories were given a provisional government, though as wards of the Dominion they were not allowed to pass laws as they wished but had to have them ratified by the Dominion Government, thus being forced into allowing separate schools.

When first elected to the Assembly he had worked for the attainment of the full status of provinces and in 1902 a deputation had been sent to Ottawa with a draft bill adopted unanimously by the assembly. Premier Rutherford, Hon. Dr. DeVeber, Peter Talbot, M.P., were elected on that platform, which asked for control of lands and mines, and compensation for what had been given by the Dominion Government to the C. P. R. and asked for the constitution, not a word of education. They believed in securing control of the lands and mines in 1903. Do they believe in it yet, or have they sold their birth-right for a mess of pottage? We have not coal, timber, water or land, nothing but the road allowances and the right to maintain them, and the right to build bridges over the streams. Does $375,000, or $1,250,000 when we reach a population of 1,200,000, compensate for loss of timber, lands and minerals? Besides if we would grow strong we must develop our own natural resources, and the strife will make us strong.

In New Zealand money was loaned to settlers at 4 per cent. under a government guarantee, while here it is 7 or 8 per cent., this in days of prosperity. What of the time when evil days come? Every man said Mr. Bennett "has a right to worship in any way he chooses, but when it comes to using the public funds to turn out members of a creed, I protest against it." The schools were for turning out good citizens, not to teach creed or dogma and if they did this the younger generation would have the seeds of dissension and strife sown in the days at school. The money of the state should be used for the purpose of erecting a common school for the province and if special rights were given to people they might take more than was at first intended.

Last year when he declined the nomination for the Dominion House, he had decided to stay out of politics, but his convictions brought him into the arena again. "Equality under the law" was the best safeguard against oppression. This was what we fought for in South Africa. Mr. Griesbach had gone out there to fight for this and he was fighting for it now in the splendid city of Edmonton.

HON. C. W. CROSS

Hon. C. W. Cross, attorney-general, arose and found and prolonged cheering. He regretted the absence of the Premier Hon. A. C. Rutherford. At the Calgary convention the Liberals had adopted as part of their platform a resolution that the Government should continue a school system inspected and maintained and controlled by the Department of Education. This the Government proposed to do.

In 1875 the North-West was purchased from the Hudson's Bay Co. by the Dominion Government and the dual school system was inaugurated, giving Protestant schools Protestant inspectors, and Roman Catholic schools Roman Catholic inspectors; this system lasted until 1891. Frank Oliver took up the matter at Regina and the present school system was established and now we have one normal school in which all teachers Roman Catholic or Protestant, must qualify, uniform curriculum and uniform textbooks. For one half hour each day religious teaching is allowed, this being granted at the request of an elder in the Presbyterian church. Quoting a subsection of the B. N. A. act of 1887, clause 3, of the province a system of separate or dissentient schools exists by law at the union, or is thereafter established by the legislature of the Province, an appeal shall lie to the Governor-General-in-council from any act or decision of any provincial authority affecting any right or privilege of the Protestant or Roman Catholic minority to education." Having learned from the Manitoba school case the mistake should not be repeated but the present school law which is entirely satisfactory, continued. The schools are national in every sense of the word, one inspector for all schools. Contrast our position with that of Ontario, where the lay Roman Catholic teachers have to qualify, but not the clerical teachers, and the department has not the power to say for how long in the day religious instruction may be given; here it is limited to one half hour a day. In Manitoba there are Roman Catholic inspectors for Roman Catholic schools, teachers qualify in a Roman Catholic normal school and the church is in supreme control of the school. Do Mr. Bennett and Mr. Griesbach agree in their attitude in the school question? There have been several conventions at Red Deer, High River and Edmonton, and it is a question if the platform adopted and agreed on this matter? Does the speaker agree? He read an extract from the Journal published at Edmonton on March 3 which said, "Among the moderate people there is no desire to change this system," referring to the present school system.

Mr. Bennett said he had agitated for provincial autonomy for four years prior to 1902. When in 1902 the motion was put, Mr. Bennett lost his second order and he stood alone, while Mr. Haultain and twenty-four others voted nay.

Mr. Cross challenged Mr. Bennett to prove that Premier Rutherford voted for Haultain's draft bill.

After two months discussion on the floor of the House at Ottawa, B. L. Rosten, leader of the opposition, challenged Sir Wilfrid Laurier to open a seat in any portion of Canada. Owing to Mr. Sifton's not seeing eye-to-eye with the Premier on this question he had resigned his portfolio as Minister of the Interior and Sir Wilfrid appointed Frank Oliver and opened the constituency of Edmonton, London and North Oxford were also vacant and Mr. Bennett speaking there said the west was up in arms. It only required $200, a candidate and four signatures to oppose Mr. Oliver in Edmonton, but acclamation. What a glorious opportunity for Mr. Bennett! But Mr. Bennett said that with Oliver a cabinet minister holding the draft bill with the capital in one hand and the Gallatin vote in the other, there was no use going there.

Mr. Bennett had dwelt a long time on the injuries sustained by the new provinces in being deprived of their lands and minerals. The fees and royalties paid last year to the Dominion Government for mining coal amounted to the glorious sum of $5,318.17. The Dominion Government were giving the new province $300,000.00.

Regarding the location of the capital Mr. Bennett had said at Calgary according to the Calgary Herald, "I will leave this matter with Mr. Cushing and if he has the capital here in fifteen days I will drop out of it." Mr. Bennett interjected "Out of Calgary."

Manitoba was not given her lands any more than the new provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan and the reason was that we needed population and if we did not offer free homesteads, as we would not be able to do, we have got the people. The Dominion Government can well afford to give free land and spend $1,000,000 a year to attract settlers. Mr. Foster, an able financier and one time high in the councils of the Conservative party, thought the terms were liberal. Haultain thought them good, as well they might when Alberta receives per capita more than any of the other provinces.

Mr. Cross asked Mr. Bennett to answer a question? "If you are elected Premier of this Province, and the Government cannot agree to you form a government, will you change the location of the capital before the legislature meets, as you have asked from Mr. Cushing to do?"

MR. BENNETT

Mr. Bennett started with a rambling reply that might have landed him anywhere, but he was kept to the question by the repeated queries of the audience, and finally said: "I should live up to the terms of the act to the letter and would not attempt to change the location until the legislature had decreed." He went on to say that as the majority of the constituencies were north of Red Deer, Edmonton would probably get the capital.

He said in the past he had indulged in personalities, but would do so no more, having gotten wisdom with age. He submitted that the text books used in Protestant and Catholic schools were different, and read an extract from one to prove it.

The speaker took up Collier's, the rank and file of the journal circulating in this country, whose pro-British tendencies were such that they engaged the traitorous Colonel Lynch to send them lying reports of British brutality and wanton slayings of defenceless people in South Africa. He proceeded to read an editorial, the writer of which relegated to himself the right to sit in judgment upon the loyal subjects of the British Crown.

He concluded by saying that our actions will be judged in the long measures of time, and if we, by our acceptance of this bill, acknowledged ourselves inferior to our neighbors on the east and the west, the judgment of our progeny would be merciless.

WHAT AN AUTHORITY THINKS

When the Federal Government is being assailed by Western Conservatives with the charge of having enacted the school clauses of the Autonomy bills at the dictation or solicitation of the Roman Catholic hierarchy and the Provincial Governments of Alberta and Saskatchewan are included in the condemnation for having asserted their approval of the clauses the following remarks from Archbishop Langevin on the school system of these provinces are not uninteresting. The Archbishop, who should be quite as competent as the Conservative politicians to determine what constitutes a separate school system or a separate school, says in a circular letter to the clergy of the Archdiocese of St. Boniface, dated September 8th:—

"The school itself will remain absolutely neutral, that is to say there will be no Catholic books, nothing on the walls of the school, room to remind us of our religion, that is to say, no Catholic atmosphere, and above all, no control of the school, nor of the formation of Catholic school mistresses or masters."

"In a word we have no denomination school—we have no Catholic school. And yet agreeable to the constitution given to the Territories of the North West by Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, at the request of the Canadian Parliament in 1870, we have a strict and evident right to denominational schools. Moreover the Honorable Minister of Justice has proved conclusively that the Federal Government had full power to restore to us this right of which divers ordinances, especially those of 1894 and 1904, had unjustly despoiled us."

"We are, then, once more sacrificed to sectarian fanaticism and we wonder if the fanatics would cry out any louder if our confiscated rights had been restored to us! Moreover, what pray do our adversaries lose with a system of separate schools, what do these lose as regards the education of their children? Nothing at all."

"Furthermore, what advantage will accrue to them even if their system of so-called national schools prevail? What advantage if not to obtain Catholic money and to make use of the same in order to neutralize the souls of their own offspring? These people are the very embodiment of impudence and tyranny. Their device is that of the Pharaoh of old; opprobrium as speaker, 'Let us oppress them wisely.'"

"At present we have, but little left us and Ottawa has notified by an unjust act the robbing us of the best of our school rights, to wit, the right of denominational schools." Thus while the Federal Government for having continued the Territorial school system is attacked by Western Conservatives on the ground that that system permits the existence of a system of separate schools, the charge is made by the Archbishop of St. Boniface that the Federal Government has sacrificed the rights of the minority by continuing a school law which prevents the establishment of denominational schools.

THE "CORPORATION CONNECTED" PARTY

Regina Leader: J. Locke Wilson of Ontario, is the fore-runner of a crowd of "workers" that the C.P.R. purposes sending into Saskatchewan to attempt to defeat the Liberals and hamper if possible the prompt construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific. Mr. J. Locke Wilson has been quietly at work for ten days past. He spoke at Edmonton last night and on Friday night he is advertised to speak with Mr. Haultain at Medicine Hat. He has been in many contests and is a practiced election worker. Others are coming, all patriots, just coming because they love Saskatchewan.

HAULTAIN HAD LOST MAJORITY

Regina Leader: The Conservatives argue that because Mr. Haultain was in office on August 31, the Governor should have followed Todd's direction by selecting him. But Governor Forget must have known, as everybody knew that Mr. Haultain had lost his majority in the Assembly. Had he dared to meet the House on the issue of the Autonomy Bills he would have met certain defeat. This is not surmise. Seven seats were vacant, leaving twenty-seven members on the floor with Mr. Gillis in the chair. The House would have divided thus:

Haultain	Bulleya
Elliott	McDonald
Bennett	Wood
Yocum	Deveber
Shera	Wallace
Meyers	Fisher
Chickson	Simpson
Greely	Rosenroll
Hawkes	Lambert
(gone)	Prince
McDermid—11	Finlay

A PROVINCIAL MUSEUM

Medicine Hat News: Prof. Harcourt, Alberta's Deputy Minister of Agriculture, who was in Medicine Hat, last week, attending the exhibition, spoke of the desirability of the government founding a museum for the preservation of the relics and landmarks associated with the early days of the west. The idea has many admirable features to commend it to Albertans and in taking the initiative at so early a date the government is showing commendable enterprise. The matter could well be taken up soon, for as time elapses many valuable and interesting curios and relics are apt to be mislaid, which, if contributed now to a museum, will be preserved. All over the country there are numberless articles to which value of importance is not now attached but which will before long assume a historic worth which will go far to assist in making the museum a most interesting place in which to seek information concerning the pioneer days of the west.

"GO NORTH, YOUNG MAN"

Collier's Weekly, the pro-Boer, anti-British publication of five years ago, has changed front with a right about wheel and has for some time published what it pleases to call a "Canadian edition." This title is probably called for on account of its large Canadian circulation and to earn its title it devotes one item a week on its editorial page to a Canadian subject. In a recent issue it says:

"Go north, young man, go north!" is now the revised form of Horace Greeley's famous "Go West" maxim. Half a century ago Opportunity was the hostess of every city in the broad Mississippi Valley, and a quarter of a century ago fortune and fame lured the ambitious youth of the continent west of the Rocky Mountains. Horace Greeley was right, and Canadians as well as Atlantic States boys accepted his advice with profit. But even in that fair haven of opportunity necessity had to wait upon invention. Factory and transportation machinery were in their first stages of evolution, and agricultural implements were slowly shaping themselves to the services of extensive farming. Today all this is the contribution of American genius to the development of the great empire north of latitude 49. The greatest wheat crop in the world has just been harvested in the new provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan. Where wheat grows so abundantly people must go and cities must arise. Because of the great material heritage of these people, the development of this new nation will be faster now than it was in the west of the United States. The youth and wisdom and ambition who dreams of great things should not overlook these significant facts. Today the index finger of opportunity points north."

The selection of tobacco takes time and great care—the conditions of its growth, the soil, the planting, and the cultivation, must all be considered.

I was the first manufacturer in Canada to use Manicouga tobacco. It proved such a winner that the tobacco agents in New York sell thousands of boxes of tobacco under that name that was never within one hundred miles of the district.

COMPETING FREIGHT RATES

(Strathcona Plaindealer)

The freight rate reduction announced this week by the C.P.R. officials mark the beginning of a new epoch in the history of Northern Alberta and particularly in the history of Strathcona and Edmonton. By the reduction the 192 miles between Calgary and Edmonton is eliminated as far as through freight from Winnipeg and points east thereof is concerned. The injustice that was done the Canadian North West and all Canada twenty-three years ago when the route of the C.P.R. was changed from the McKenzie survey to the line through the Kicking Horse pass is now being wiped out. We speak of the change as an injustice principally because it is evident that the growth of the population was greatly retarded by the millions of fertile acres of the Saskatchewan valley being left all these years without transportation facilities. The sturdy pioneers who rushed into the Edmonton district twenty-five years ago to get ahead of the C.P.R. are beginning to live their dreams realized. The October freight tariff gives Calgary, Strathcona and Edmonton exactly the same rates thus putting these three towns almost on an equal footing for doing jobbing business along the C. & N. Ry. line and its branches. Strathcona has a little the best of the deal as opposed to Edmonton in that the shipper of the north town has the E. N. & P. rates against him whereas the Strathcona shipper has no such charge to pay. Calgary jobbers can do business as far north as Red Deer; Strathcona and Edmonton jobbers can go as far south as that town and all three compete for the business of Red Deer. Strathcona and Calgary being on an equal footing. The northern towns have the big end of the wholesale trade at their command in that the C. & N. branches from Lacombe and Wetaskiwin are both this side of Red Deer and the trade of the towns along those branches will be considerable.

The reduction in the export rates from Strathcona to Winnipeg will be very beneficial to this district and have a tendency to stiffen if not raise the price of grain, cattle and hogs and enlarge the market for our coal and brick.

In years past when the Canadian Northern was an insignificant corporation projected through this country C. P. R. officials were heard to boast that they would be here with a direct line to Winnipeg before the C. N. R. In a measure the boast has been fulfilled. While the smoke of the C. N. R. is still seventy miles away the C. P. R. freight rates have been reduced to the figures that represents the shorter mileage.

There is no announcement yet regarding passenger rates but doubtless within a month reductions will be made in that department also. We may rest assured that the winter excursion rates from Edmonton and Strathcona will be less than ever before.

Not only in rates but in mileage will the C.P.R. soon be in direct competition with the Canadian Northern between Strathcona and Winnipeg.

The grading of the Wetaskiwin branch east is progressing rapidly and will be almost completed to Saskatoon this fall. The work is also going forward rapidly east of Saskatoon and we may expect that before this time next year through trains between Winnipeg and Strathcona will be run via Wetaskiwin and Saskatoon. We are assured by C.P.R. officials that the mileage will then be shorter than the C.N.R. between the points of convergence.

All these facts regarding improved transportation facilities together with the many natural advantages which Strathcona has for the establishment of industrial enterprises places this town in the fore-front and assures her commercial future beyond the shadow of a doubt.

A CASE OF INEQUALITY

(Calgary Alberta)

A brief examination of the revenues of the different provinces in Canada show how absurd and insecure are the lamentations of James Muir, R. R. Bennett and the others who tell us of our woe-filled fate, and complain that the new provinces are placed at a disadvantage compared with the other provinces.

The province of Manitoba, with an estimated population of 250,000 has a revenue from all sources, of all kinds of $1,350,667.

The Province of Prince Edward Island, with a population of 1,648,590, has a revenue from all sources of $1,880,687.

The Province of Ontario, with a population of 2,183,000, has a revenue of $6,124,358.

The province of New Brunswick, with a population of 331,000, has a revenue of $890,653.

The Province of Nova Scotia has a population of 460,000, and a revenue of $1,194,756.

The Province of British Columbia without the revenue derived from direct taxation, has a revenue of $954,800, and a population of 180,660.

The Province of Alberta, with a population of 178,000, has a revenue from Dominion subsidies alone of $1,125,000.

The following table giving the per capita revenue of the provinces is very interesting:

Ontario,	$2.79.
British Columbia,	$5.
New Brunswick,	$2.69.
Nova Scotia,	$2.59.
Quebec,	$2.89.
Prince Edward Island,	$2.98.
Manitoba,	$4.24.
Alberta,	$8.50.

But this calculation is hardly fair and it embraces for the provinces other than Alberta, forms of revenue which are also open to Alberta, such as excise duties, licenses, and such things. By deducting the items in this list which go to make up the revenues on other provinces the per capita table looks something like this:

New Brunswick,	$2.36.
Manitoba,	$2.46.
Nova Scotia,	$2.28.
Quebec,	$2.14.
Prince Edward Island,	$2.14.
Ontario,	$1.97.
Alberta,	$8.50.

And this is not exactly fair either.

The provinces which receive large sums from the ownership of their lands have to pay out large sums to maintain them.

Let us then consider the revenues which the provinces derive in the way of Dominion subsidies and the net revenues from the ownership of the lands and from no other source, and we have the following table, which is of very great interest. The table is the per capita grant for each of the provinces from the Dominion subsidies and the administration of the lands.

We have the following calculation:

British Columbia,	$4.30.
Manitoba,	$2.35.
Prince Edward Island,	$2.14.
New Brunswick,	$2.12.
Nova Scotia,	$2.05.
Ontario,	$1.70.
Quebec,	$1.47.
Alberta,	$8.50.

There does seem to be an inequality between the terms that Alberta is receiving, but the inequality is not very painful.

A Business Proposition

Do you want to make more money from your cows? Are you now trying to skim cream the old way, with crocks and pans, or a "tin-can" separator? If so, you are losing money every day. Would it not be simply "good business" to invest a moderate sum in a U. S. Separator which by getting practically all the cream, turns your present daily loss into daily gain? Consider the actual experience of one farmer who learned such an investment was "good business."

DEVER, Ia., July 7, 1905.
We have been using the U. S. Cream Separator for over three years, and are more than pleased with it. It skims clean and runs easy. From nine cows it paid for itself nearly four times in one year. I recommend it to my neighbors, and believe the time is near when more of the U. S. Separator will be used by those who have seen mine. In regard to the wear of the machine, I think it ahead of any other.

Mr. Jones' case isn't exceptional, for in our illustrated book, No. 100-C, we have gathered some of the thousands of letters received showing similar experiences, varying only in degree, depending upon individual conditions. Many thousands of milk producers have found it extremely "good business" to invest in an improved U. S. CREAM SEPARATOR.

For Family Colds

A reliable cough and cold cure should be always in the house ready for use the moment the first symptoms appear.

It is always easy, cheaper and better to check a cold in the very beginning.

Shilo's Consumption Cure, the Lung Tonic, has been tested for thirty-three years, and tens of thousands of homes in Canada and the United States today are never without it.

A dealer writes: "Shilo's Consumption Cure is without doubt the best remedy for Coughs and Colds on the market. Once used, my customer will buy no other."—L. Elmer, Nanawauqua, Ont.

If it were anything but the best would this be so? Try it in your own family. If it does not cure, you get back all your money. We take all the chances. Neither you nor your dealer can lose. Isn't that fair? 2c. is the price. All dealers in medicine sell.

SOMETHING NEW AND IS DELIGHTED. FEELS LIKE A BOY.

Mr. M. N. Darrow, Manager The Darrow Bros. Co., 29 Colborne St., Toronto, is telling his friends how he found health after years of illness and pain. He says:

"I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia for many years. I have been treated by local doctors and have taken the advertised remedies with only temporary relief, if any at all, but since using Anti-Pill I can eat anything the same as when a boy. I have been taking one Anti-Pill at bedtime for the past three months, and find they regulate both stomach and bowels. My old time vigor has returned, so that my spirits are buoyant and temper normal. As a result of this unchanged for experience I am in duty bound to give credit to this wonderful remedy, Anti-Pill."

Every druggist sells Dr. Leonard's Anti-Pill, or a sample will be sent free by The Wilson-Pyle Co., Limited, Niagara Falls, Ont.

The remedy that cured Mr. Darrow is surely worth a trial.

MR. BENNETT AND HIS PRICE.

Mr. Bennett, leader of the Provincial Strife party in Alberta, opened his contest at Calgary on Wednesday evening. He had more to say concerning the location of the Capital than he had at his Strathcona or Edmonton meetings. He was quite definite in his statement that all of his efforts would be devoted to having the capital permanently located at Calgary, and told his audience that a very easy way to remove it from Edmonton could be adopted. He pointed out that all that was necessary to bring the capital to Calgary was an Order-in-Council under the great seal. Hon. Mr. Cushing, Hon. Mr. Finlay and Hon. Dr. DeVeber, were all from Southern Alberta, and constituted a majority of the present Cabinet. If Mr. Cushing and his associate members from the South would bring the capital to Calgary, he (Mr. Bennett) would retire from the contest.

Mr. Bennett is today the chosen leader of the Conservatives in Alberta. He is looked upon as the hope of his party, and in Strathcona he told his audience that in the present contest he was actuated by great principles and high ideals in the future government of his adopted province. The Provincial Strife organs never tire of telling their readers that he is today Alberta's favorite son and the hope of the Province. He has placed himself on record that he will agitate, agitate and agitate until the present Cabinet is overthrown and a new order of things prevails in the west. The school laws must be changed; the lands must come to the Province; the mines and minerals also should be Provincial assets and the revenue and royalties derived therefrom should be paid into the Provincial Treasury. In the face then, of his past record and loud professions, his utterances at Calgary in reference to the location of the Capital, come like a bolt from the blue.

He is prepared to shatter his past record, to swallow all his past professions of fealty to his party, to forgo all his lofty principles and high ideals concerning the future, the "manifest destiny" of the great west, if only Calgary be made the capital of Alberta.

Tell it not in Alberta, publish it not in the streets of Calgary that E. B. Bennett is prepared to desert his party at the present juncture—that he believes that every man has his price, and that R. B. Bennett's price for the desertion of his "high ideals" and "principles" is the location of the capital at Calgary. The soldier who in the face of battle, would dare to compromise with the enemy and desert his post, would be shot without compunction by his fellows: the general who would desert his followers under similar conditions would be executed when living and condemned in history when dead. Yet R. B. Bennett, who travelled thousands of miles to tell the people of Ontario that he was resolved to actuate, to fight, and, if necessary, to die for his high ideals and lofty principles of statesmanship in the West. Is prepared to shatter his reputation and to step down and out from political life, if only the capital of Alberta is located at Calgary.

The Cream Separator that is the Cheapest in the End.

There are some folks who are everlastingly trying to get "something for nothing." They buy a wagon at a "bargain" price because the agent says it's "just as good." And then, after a few months, when the tires and spokes have all loosened up, they cross the wagon. Price not the only difference.

It's the same way with cream separators. You can buy many other separators for less money than the U. S. Cream Separator sells for, but before you're finished paying for the separator you'll find price isn't the only difference. The cheaper separators soon get out of adjustment because built of cheaper material by inferior manufacturing methods; they consume twice the necessary amount of oil; they have a bowl that will not run true, and does not skim close. The repairs in the first few years would pay the difference for the U. S. Cream Separator.

Durability is Important. The U. S. Cream Separator has stood the test of time. Many of them have been in use for 10 years, and cost less than a dollar for repairs. They run easy, skim cleaner than others, have a simple bowl, enclosed gears, and a convenient low supply can.

The Vermont

Farm Machine Co., of Bellows Falls, Vt., have printed in a handsome booklet a few of the thousands of letters from satisfied users of the U. S. Cream Separator.

This booklet will save you money when you buy a separator, and a post card will bring it to you. To insure prompt deliveries and to save freight charges for their Canadian customers, they ship from their warehouses at Montreal, Sherbrooke, Hamilton, Winnipeg, Calgary and Vancouver, but all letters should be addressed to Bellows Falls, Vt.

CRICKET

Though the weather was cold and cheerless the final cricket match of the season was fairly well attended, the spectators including Mrs. Constantine, Mrs. and Miss Bouchier, Miss Nash, Miss Worsley, Miss Mowat, Miss Taylor and Miss Mantle. We also noticed Mr. T. Anderson and Mr. W. A. Griesbach.

The result of the match was gratifying to the home side, Edmonton leading on the first innings by 74 runs and thereby securing the Ochsen Cup. This cup is, we hear, to be competed for annually, though we are not positive on this point, as we had been led to think that this was to remain with the winners. We regret that the match, through no fault on the part of the visiting team, did not commence on scheduled time; the Fort eleven were, however, all dismissed before lunch for the moderate total of 63. Bowen and Leith were in best form and it was perhaps fortunate for Edmonton that the latter (who was not out 9) did not bat earlier in their first innings.

An indifferent start by Edmonton (three wickets being down for 23) was improved by a free display of batting on the part of Mountfield and LeMaistre. Seldom this season has a greater mastery been obtained over the bowlers, despite a few difficult chances which were not accepted. Both batsmen fell at the same total, 88. Hardisty and Aldridge, who have played but little this year, each added 7; while an obstinate resistance was later offered by Jones and Strongitharm, their partnership taking the score from 111 to 138 for the ninth wicket. The former had the distinction of carrying off his bat for sixteen, besides obtaining two wickets, a pretty catch being made by Boyes in the slips off his bowling.

Edmonton was, of course, greatly strengthened on this occasion, the presence of the elder Boyes being in itself an inspiration, and he was supported by good fielding. In this department Howard, Hardisty and Nield were perhaps the most conspicuous. Indeed, it was agreed that the team chosen was a strong one, especially when we consider the lateness of the season. The club thanks the Edmonton Brewing Co. for supplying refreshment. Tea was served by Miss Mowat, Miss Mantle, and Mrs. Manuel's consideration was again most welcome. We give the full scores as follows:

AN OLD TIMER ON MR. BENNETT

Last night one of Edmonton's most prominent Old-timers was observed to be laughing at some of Mr. Bennett's sallies so heartily that the Bulletin resolved to enquire the cause.

"Well, I'll tell you—if you promise not to give my name," he replied.

The promise was given.

"It was this way," said Old Mr. Smoothface—that is not his name, but he may possibly be recognized by it. "I've heard Mr. Bennett before. He always reminds me of some one I used to know or see in Ontario, and I never could remember who it was."

That puzzled me. All of a sudden it flashed on me last night, before he got to swinging his arms like my windmill. For a quarter of an hour at first he was doing all his gesticulating with his mouth. Well, I got to think what it would look like painted white or red. Then it struck me he reminded me of Cool Burgess. Ever see Cool? Before your time eh? Well Cool was the boss hog for minstrel twenty-five years or so ago. He had just brother Bennett's way of gesticulating with his mouth. Made a crowd laugh quicker'n anything. He'd open that mouth like an O, and twist it U shape next half second, and then stretch it out like an India rubber shoe with the heel and toe of the shoe bent together, and roll his eyes just for all the world same as Bennett. Said about as much sense too. Brush if you'd once heard old Cool rolling out a long string of mouthfilling words so fast they seemed tumbling over one another, and then just any old words no meaning to 'em you understand. Generally played end-man, the fellow that gives ridiculous serious sounding answers to innocent questions. And when Mr. Bennett got to telling us that our liberties were all gone by reason of local option in religious teaching for half an hour a day, why, suddenly the comicality of him pretending to be serious reminded me of old Cool, and I had too laugh out right there, just the way you noticed. Next time you hear brother Bennett just you think how he'd look with his face cocked, and lips painted red, and then going in and out and roundabout and everyway, and shaking his words and words and words. Then, if you don't agree with me that he ought to be end man in a minstrel show, why all I've got to say is you've never seen a good Minstrel show.

SOME MEN ARE RICH

In Edmonton today because they had foresight enough two or three years ago to buy property which, as the city grew, advanced rapidly in value. Some of them were laughed at—people called them fools—but two short years has abundantly proved the correctness of their judgment, and they are reaping the reward of their faith in the city.

The growth of the city during the past two or three years has been great, but, compared with the growth of the next two or three years it will be but as the dawn of day compared with the splendor of the noon-day sun.

You have the opportunity now to do as some few did in the past.

The Groat Estate

Is now on the market at prices which will look small—very small, indeed—in the very near future. The city is growing westward rapidly and ere long this estate will be the choice residential part. No part of this estate is more than two miles from the very centre of Edmonton today—in five years it will be in the very heart of the city.

There are 500 lots—50 x 150 ft.—to be sold on easy terms—one-third cash, and the balance in six and twelve months, without interest. There will be no taxes to pay for over a year.

History Repeats Itself

You can buy from two to ten lots for the same money which it will take to purchase one in the present settled part of the city. Those who sow a few dollars now will reap a rich harvest in the not-far-distant future. Don't miss the chance now—TODAY—and have to say in a year: "What a fool I was that I didn't purchase a year ago." Somebody is going to make money on this estate—why not have a share of it?
